

Future Requests

Numerous community parades and events have already been scheduled for this year.

Please visit our website for our calendar of events.

We are truly honored and proud to do what we do and to do it as part of the American Legion.

Our Uniform

Our suggested parade or public event uniform consists of the following:

Head Gear: Black Beret w/ALR pin or patch

Vest: A black vest will be worn displaying the American Legion Riders patch on the back, which also identifies the member's district and post. The American Legion family patch will be displayed on the front right uppermost area of the vest and the U.S. Flag patch will be displayed on the front left uppermost area. Nothing will be displayed above the U.S. Flag. Style of the vest is individual choice.

Shirt: A black shirt with sleeves will be worn under the vest.

Pants: Black jeans or pants will be worn. Pants will not be frayed or faded.

Dark shoes or boots

Membership Requirements

A current member or eligible member of the American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary or Sons of the American Legion.

You must be a registered owner of a motorcycle of at least 500 cc and hold a current motorcycle endorsement. The motorcycle must be operational upon renewal or as determined by the Executive Board.

All new applicants should be sponsored by a fellow American Legion Rider or seek membership from the Executive Board.

Upon approval of appointment, annual dues must be paid.

Anyone meeting the above requirements that would like to share their enthusiasm and interests are more than welcome to contact us.
